Dear recruiter,

I am writing to express my interest in the Software Developer position mentioned in your job offer. As a Computer Systems Engineer, graduated in 2010, I have over 12 years of experience in the software development field. My passion for creating innovative tools, maintaining systems, and continuously proposing improvements has driven my professional growth. With a solid background in software engineering, I am confident that my qualifications align well with the requirements of this role.

Throughout my career, I have gained comprehensive knowledge of the Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC) and have honed my skills in key programming languages such as JavaScript, ReactJS, HTML, CSS, and Redux. I have extensive experience working with various operating systems, including Windows, Unix, Linux, and virtual environments. My participation in multiple stages of software development—from information gathering, architecture design, and coding to testing, implementation, and user training—has prepared me to effectively contribute to your team. Additionally, my daily responsibilities include testing code components, customizing applications, data analysis, and providing actionable recommendations.

Currently, I am based in Sydney, Australia, and am focused on expanding my expertise in NextJS and AWS while improving my English language proficiency. I am also open to relocation if necessary to support the needs of the role and the organization. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills and experience to your team and contribute to its continued success.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills can benefit your team, feel free to contact me anytime via email jefferson_miranda@hotmail.es o jjmirandaa86@gmail.com or from the phone +61423775180.

Sincerely,

Jefferson
